Annual Report & Contributor Listing 2010

Your Farm, Your Community, You Make it Possible

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our community of new and long-time friends whose generous support ensures the continued success and vitality of Shelburne Farms.

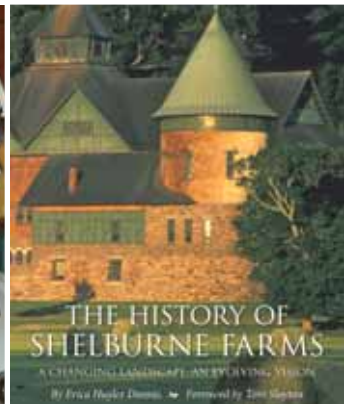

Phase 2 of Formal Gardens Restoration Project began.

Green Mountain Power installs solar orchard near Coach Barn.

Your Farm, Your Community in 2010

We made repairs to the timber framing at the Breeding Barn.

You'll find more photos that capture the year inside the back cover.

We hosted "Slow Money's 2nd National Gathering."

THANKS TO OUR SUPPORTERS

An annual contributor to the Farm recently remarked that he had always thought the goal of the nonprofit had been to save Shelburne Farms from wholesale development. It wasn't until this spring that he realized the education organization here was created to help shape the future of the Earth beyond the Farm's gates.

The whole idea behind Shelburne Farms is to shift society onto a sustainable path, primarily by educating young people. As we steward the Farm's land and buildings and strengthen local food and energy systems, we are building a living campus to support this vision.

The development threat to the Farm's future in the 1970's and 1980's presented the opportunity to solidify and exemplify values, principles and practices we believe are important for a sustainable future. Now, through our outreach and partnership projects serving educators and schools, we are using what we are learning to support sustainability education in nearby communities in Vermont and as far away as China.

Propelling us forward is the dedication of our members, volunteers and staff. It is you – our donors and friends – who encourage, support and inspire us. We are grateful for your trust as year by year Shelburne Farms works to make a real and lasting difference and to care for this beautiful place.

We have come a long way since the nonprofit was founded in 1972. Thank you for being part of the community supporting this hopeful endeavor.

Shelburne Farms is a nonprofit education organization, 1,400-acre working farm and National Historic Landmark that is shared with the community.

The mission of Shelburne Farms is to cultivate a conservation ethic for a sustainable future by

- practicing the stewardship of natural and agricultural resources and
- educating young people to become ecologically literate and caring citizens who make choices that create a healthy and just world.

We extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the community of new and long-time friends whose generous support ensures the continued success and vitality of Shelburne Farms. In addition to listing Honorary Stewards, Land Stewardship Fund donors, Endowment Funds, and Stewardship Circle members, this listing includes individuals, businesses, foundations and organizations who contributed to Shelburne Farms between January 1 and December 31, 2010. The accuracy of this listing is very important to us. Please let us know if you can't find your name or if you are listed incorrectly so that we can correct our records.

Thank you all!

Farm-Based Education Association

The FBEA – of which Shelburne Farms is a founding partner – was established in 2006 to inspire, nurture, and promote farm-based education. It serves as a resource for professional development, networking, employment, education, programming, and facilities management for farm-based education practitioners, both nationally and globally.

Founding Partners

Delaware Nature Society - Coverdale Farm, Hockessin, DE
Massachusetts Audubon Society - Drumlin Farm, Lincoln, MA
Hawthorne Valley Farm, Ghent, NY
Land's Sake, Weston, MA
Maysie's Farm Conservation Center, Glenmoore, PA
N. American Montessori Teachers Association, Burton, OH
Northwest Youth Corp, Eugene, OR
Shelburne Farms, Shelburne, VT
Spannocchia Foundation, Portland, ME
Stone Barns Center for Food and Agriculture, Pocantico Hills, NY
Stonewall Farm, Keene, NH
The FARM Institute, Edgartown, MA
The Farm School, Athol, MA
The Farms of the Trustees of Reservations, Ipswich, MA

Sustainable Schools Project

Shelburne Farms' Sustainable Schools Project (SSP) is an innovative school-wide model that uses the big ideas of sustainability for curriculum development, campus ecology, community partnerships, and collaboration. The goal of SSP is to improve student academic achievement and increase civic engagement through place-based education and service-learning.

Vermont FEED

Vermont FEED (Food Education Every Day), a collaboration of three nonprofit organizations, acts as a catalyst for rebuilding healthy food systems, and for cultivating links between classrooms, cafeterias, local farms, and communities. The mission of VT FEED is to raise awareness about healthy food, the role of Vermont farms and farmers, and good nutrition.

For All You Do

We want to extend a big thank you to all the wonderful people who volunteer throughout the year at Shelburne Farms or work seasonally in our education programs, special events, Children's Farmyard, dairy and cheese, the inn and restaurant, Welcome Center and building and grounds. Together with our dedicated team of year-round staff, our volunteers and seasonal staff make all our regular programs and enterprises, as well as the Harvest Festival, Art Show, Winter Fest, Mother's Day House Tours, Calf Open House and other special programs possible.

Program & Visitor Attendance

Shelburne Farms served 145,645 people in 2010 through its education and visitor programs, and by making its facilities available for use by others.

Winter Farmers Markets in Burlington!

41 trees were planted in Farm Barn triangle.

23rd Annual Art Exhibition & Sale

"Bats in the Barn," one of our many family programs in 2010.

We built a new, energy-efficient home for dairy staff.

77% of the food served at the Inn was grown or produced at the Farm or by Vermont producers.

We hosted the National Tree Farmers' "Forest Field Day!"

We installed 96 solar panels at the Farm Barn.
